

- View: Headlines Only | Include Summaries | Include Photos
- 1. 'Crazy Cabbie' Spending Year in Prison
AP - 1 hour, 35 minutes ago

NEW YORK - Radio personality "Crazy Cabbie" will spend a year in prison for tax evasion after boasting about it on the nationally syndicated "Howard Stern Show."
 -  2. Girl in Disney Abuse Photos Found Safe
AP - Fri May 13, 8:59 PM ET

ORLANDO, Fla. - A young girl who appeared in a series of sexually explicit pictures taken at a Walt Disney World hotel and other locations has been found and is now safe, authorities said Friday.
 -  3. U.S. Calls Iraq Border Operation a Success
AP - 50 minutes ago

OBEIDI, Iraq - The U.S. military pronounced its weeklong offensive near the Syrian border over Saturday, saying it had successfully "neutralized" an insurgent sanctuary and killed more than 125 militants.
 -  4. Base Plan Would Alter Military Landscape
AP - 1 hour, 10 minutes ago

WASHINGTON - Defense Secretary Donald H. Rumsfeld is proposing to close and shrink hundreds of bases to create a leaner, more cost-effective force. If accepted, the plan would alter the domestic military landscape and greatly affect the four services branches and communities that are home to the installations.
 - 5. U.S. Carriers Raise Fares by $10 to $20
AP - Sat May 14, 12:28 AM ET

In an effort to stem huge losses, the big U.S. airlines increased their domestic ticket prices heading into the weekend by $10 to $20 roundtrip, depending on the length of the flight.
 -  6. India's top court orders probe into child marriages
Reuters - Sat May 14, 6:51 AM ET

NEW DELHI (Reuters) - India's top court has ordered three states investigate reports of thousands of child marriages despite a ban on the centuries-old tradition.
 -  7. U.S. assault ends, gunmen kill Iraqi official
Reuters - 1 hour, 9 minutes ago

BAGHDAD (Reuters) - The U.S. military said it killed 125 insurgents in an offensive in western Iraq that ended on Saturday but guerrillas struck again in Baghdad, assassinating a senior Foreign Ministry official and attacking police patrols.
 -  8. Hundreds of Children Marry in India
AP - Fri May 13, 4:34 PM ET

RAJGARH, India - Ignoring laws that ban child marriages, hundreds of children, some as young as seven years old, were married this week in a centuries-old custom across central and western India.
 - 9. Personal Nuclear Power: New Battery Lasts 12 Years
SPACE.com / LiveScience.com - Fri May 13, 5:13 PM ET

A new type of battery based on the radioactive decay of nuclear material is 10 times more powerful than similar prototypes and should last a decade or more without a charge, scientists announced this week.
 - 10. Hot Sauce Cashes in on Bride's Cold Feet
AP - 24 minutes ago

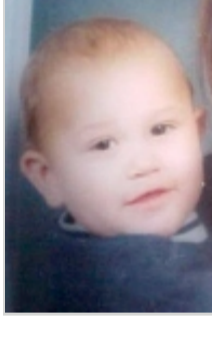

ATLANTA - Maybe hot sauce is the cure for cold feet. "Jennifer's High Tailin' Hot Sauce," a nod to the saga of runaway bride Jennifer Wilbanks, has sold briskly since its debut Wednesday.
 -  11. 'Potter' Tops Hot Summer Reading List
AP - Thu May 12, 5:12 PM ET

NEW YORK - The hot books this summer are as varied as the shades of the sea, but book sellers agree that Nicole Krauss' "The History of Love" is at the top of the sand pile — after "Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince," that is.
 - 12. Breast Cancer Drug Could Benefit Prostate
AP - 4 minutes ago

ORLANDO, Fla. - A new study gives encouraging signs that a hormonal drug used to fight breast cancer might help prevent abnormal prostate growths from turning into cancers.
 - 13. Police issue Amber Alert for missing child following downtown Toronto murder
Canadian Press - 51 minutes ago

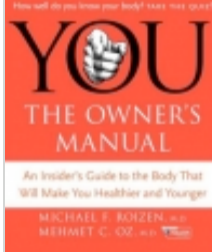

TORONTO (CP) - An Amber Alert was issued Saturday for a missing two-year-old boy following the shooting death of 23-year-old mother.
 - 14. Police arrest two suspected human skinners
Reuters - Fri May 13, 11:10 AM ET

DAR ES SALAAM (Reuters) - Tanzanian police arrested two men accused of killing a 9-year-old boy and selling his skin for 20,000 shillings ($18) to make sorcerers' get-rich-quick charms, a senior officer said Friday.
 -  15. Uzbek Unrest Spreads to Kyrgyz Border
AP - 22 minutes ago

ANDIJAN, Uzbekistan - Thousands of terrified Uzbeks trying to flee into Kyrgyzstan burned a government building Saturday and attacked border guards, a second day of violence triggered by a brazen jail break to free accused Islamic militants and a massive demonstration against economic conditions under the iron-fisted rule of President Islam Karimov.
 -  16. FBI: Missing N.M. Toddler Found Safe
AP - Sat May 14, 11:12 AM ET

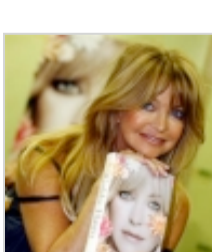

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - For Kristi Black's family and friends, it was a day to grieve and a day to rejoice. Hours after they gathered to pay their last respects to the murdered teenager, federal authorities announced they had found her missing 16-month-old son in Mexico.
 - 17. He 'misinterpreted' the situation...
Reuters - Fri May 13, 11:07 AM ET

BERLIN (Reuters) - The deputy leader of the German state of Bremen resigned after pouring sparkling wine over the head of a homeless man in an apparent joke that went wrong.
 -  18. Arresting Developments for Fall TV
E! Online - Fri May 13, 9:26 PM ET

What a difference a year makes. Last spring, ratings-beleaguered ABC was, well, desperate.
 -  19. Rowling to Give Midnight 'Potter' Reading
AP - Sat May 14, 11:43 AM ET

LONDON - Harry Potter author J.K. Rowling will give a midnight reading of the sixth book in her hugely successful series at Edinburgh Castle in Scotland to coincide with its publication, the writer announced Saturday.
 - 20. Former Saudi charity head to sue Rice in U.S. court
Reuters - 1 hour, 20 minutes ago

RIYADH (Reuters) - The former head of Saudi Arabia's Al-Haramain charity said on Saturday he was filing a lawsuit in the United States against senior officials including Condoleezza Rice for putting him on a U.N. terrorist blacklist.
 - 21. Gunmen Assassinate Top Iraqi Official
AP - 1 hour, 54 minutes ago

BAGHDAD, Iraq - Gunmen assassinated a top Iraqi Foreign Ministry official Saturday evening in a drive-by shooting while he stood outside his Baghdad home, police said.
 -  22. Goldie Hawn Still Visits Hometown
AP - 1 hour, 37 minutes ago

TAKOMA PARK, Md. - If no one is home when Goldie Hawn returns on her annual visits to the brick duplex in this Washington, D.C., suburb where she grew up, she finds a neighbor to let her in.
 - 23. Van Sant says Courtney Love should not see his film
Reuters - Sat May 14, 12:58 PM ET

CANNES, France (Reuters) - Gus Van Sant thinks Courtney Love should probably not see his film "Last Days," a fictional reflection on Kurt Cobain's life, even though it has been 11 years since her grunge rocker husband killed himself.
 -  24. Jackson's Bed of "Unconditional Love"
E! Online - Fri May 13, 9:35 PM ET

Michael Jackson never denied sleeping with his young accuser. Not even to his attorney.
 -  25. Bush vows vigorous enforcement of U.S. trade laws
Reuters - Sat May 14, 10:38 AM ET

WASHINGTON (Reuters) - President Bush called on Congress on Saturday to approve a controversial free-trade pact with Central America and sought to assure Americans that U.S. trade laws will be "vigorously" enforced.

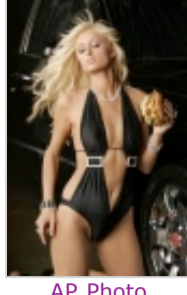

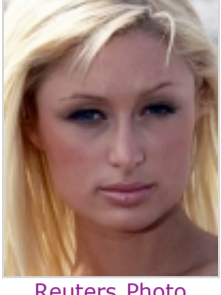

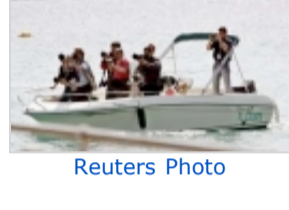

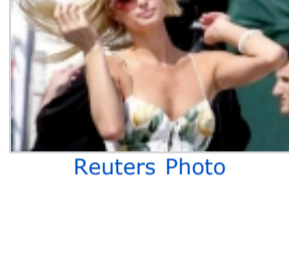

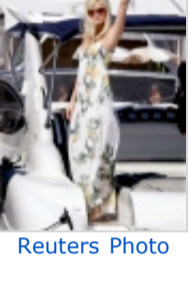

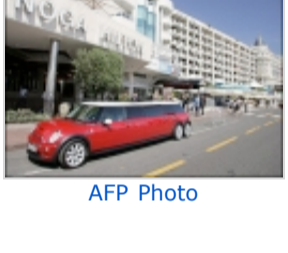

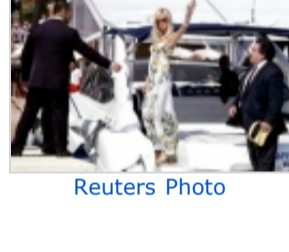

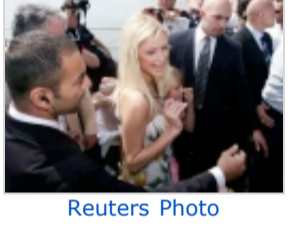

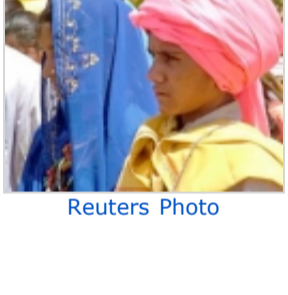

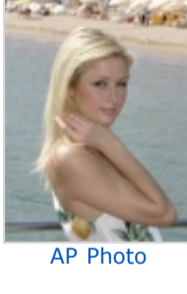

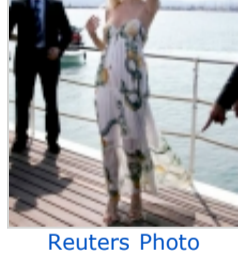

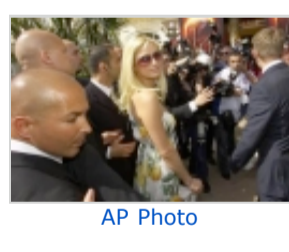

Verizon Online DSL 3.0Mbps
This is Powerful Stuff

Now twice as fast! Only $29.95/month with 1-year commitment.
Get your first month FREE when you order online, plus a wireless router.

Learn More

MOST VIEWED PHOTOS

 AP Photo	 Reuters Photo
 AFP Photo	 Reuters Photo
 AFP Photo	 Reuters Photo
 Fashion Wire Daily Photo	 Reuters Photo
 AP Photo	 Reuters Photo
 Reuters Photo	 Reuters Photo
 Reuters Photo	 Reuters Photo
 AP Photo	 AFP Photo
 AP Photo	 Reuters Photo
 Reuters Photo	 Reuters Photo
 Reuters Photo	 Reuters Photo
 AP Photo	 Reuters Photo
 Reuters Photo	 AP Photo
 AP Photo	 Reuters Photo
 Reuters Photo	 Reuters Photo

Most Viewed Photos